STAFF WELFARE MEASURES

The institution has implemented comprehensive welfare measures and a performance appraisal system for both teaching and non-teaching staff. The Gokula Krishna College of Pharmacy (GKCP) fosters a harmonious working environment by nurturing positive relationships among management, teaching, and administrative staff. This ethos aims to cultivate a peaceful and supportive atmosphere for all employees. The institution consistently delivers effective welfare initiatives for its entire workforce, ensuring their regular implementation.

Various welfare measures provided by the college include:

- Provision of rent-free accommodation in the hostel
- Complimentary transport services from different locations
- Subsidized meals in the canteen for all employees
- Access to free residential accommodation or a rent-free allowance
- Financial support and guidance for research activities
- Sponsorship for attending Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), seminars, workshops, and conferences
- Assistance for publishing research papers in reputable journals
- Salary advances during emergencies for teaching and non-teaching staff
- Encouragement for faculty to pursue higher education, such as Ph.D. programs
- Salary increments post-Ph.D. attainment
- Maternity leave benefits for female faculty up to six months
